STANDARD CONTRACT
For the Sale of Sawlogs by Volume between

FORESTRY AND LAND SCOTLAND, acting in exercise of the powers contained in the Forestry and Land Management (Scotland) Act 2018 (FLM (S) A 2018) and having its principal place of business at 1 Highlander Way, Inverness, IV2 7GB acting through Forest Enterprise, its forestry business organisation, having its principal place of business at the same address (hereinafter referred to as "Forestry and Land Scotland")

OF THE FIRST PART

the party whose details are set out in Part I of the Schedule (hereinafter referred to as "the Purchaser")

OF THE SECOND PART

WHEREAS-

Forestry and Land Scotland has offered in auction or tender or negotiation to sell and the Purchaser wishes to purchase the Products (as hereinafter defined) subject to the terms and conditions set out in this Agreement.

NOW THEREFORE IT IS HEREBY AGREED AS FOLLOWS-

1. INTERPRETATION

1.1 "Authorised Access Routes" means the roads which may be used by the Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement marked as such on the Sale Map and are subject to the appropriate parts of the Road Traffic Act and should comply with the classification and associated specification as stated in the Schedule;

"Business Day" means any day on which the clearing banks are open for business;

“Work Sites” means those areas of land including any Authorised Access Routes and Stacking Sites (at all times located within the area(s) shown by hatching (or otherwise identified) on the Sale Map.

- 1.2 References to any of the parties hereto shall, subject to Clause 9, include their respective executors, personal representatives, and successors in title and assignees.
- 1.3 The provisions of the Interpretation Act 1978 with respect to interpretation and construction shall apply mutatis mutandis.
- 1.4 The headings in this Agreement and in the Schedule are inserted for convenience only and shall not be taken into account in the interpretation of them.
- 1.5 References to recitals, numbered clauses and sub-clauses are references to recitals, clauses and sub-clauses of this Agreement unless the context otherwise requires.
- 1.6 References in this Agreement to any statute or statutory or legislative provisions shall be deemed to include reference to any statute, regulation or statutory instrument which amends, extends, consolidates or replaces the same (or shall have done so) and to any other regulation, statutory instrument or other subordinate legislation made thereunder or pursuant thereto.

2. SALE OF THE PRODUCTS

- 2.1 Pursuant to and subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement Forestry and Land Scotland shall sell and the Purchaser shall purchase the Total Quantity.
- 2.2 Neither party will be deemed to be in breach of Clause 2.1 where the amount of Products made available or uplifted is within plus or minus 10% of the Total Quantity.
- 2.3 The Parties may, from time to time, agree to the sale of additional products by agreeing additional Schedules to this Agreement. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the terms of this Agreement shall apply to such sales as if each reference to the Schedule was a reference to the newly agreed Schedule. Each schedule, together with the terms of this Agreement, shall form a separate agreement between the parties.

3. REMOVAL OF THE PRODUCTS

- 3.1 The Commencement Date and Expiry Date shall be as specified in Part 1 of the Schedule;
- 3.2 For the purposes of this Agreement only and subject to Clauses 3.1 and 6.10 or as otherwise be provided in this Agreement, Forestry and Land Scotland shall:-
- 3.2.1 subject to Clause 3.3, allow the Purchaser access to and egress from the Stacking Sites using the Authorised Access Routes, to remove the Products, with the exception of restrictions as stated in the Schedule;
 - 3.2.2 supply the Products stacked at Stacking Sites in such a manner as will facilitate safe removal by the Purchaser from the Stacking Sites using the Authorised Access Routes;
 - 3.2.3 make the products available for collection at Stacking Sites in reasonably equal monthly quantities having regard to the effect of seasonal working conditions and holidays;
 - 3.2.4 notify the Purchaser on a weekly basis between the Uplift Commencement Date and the Removal Date which Products are available in accordance with Clause 3.2.2 (hereinafter referred to as a “Weekly Notification”);
 - 3.2.5 authorise the Purchaser to remove the Products following the service of a Weekly Notification.
- 3.3 The Purchaser:-
- 3.3.1 shall only be entitled to remove any Products in accordance with Forestry and Land Scotland approved dispatch procedure in respect of each individual load;
 - 3.3.2 shall give Forestry and Land Scotland reasonable notice of the date and time when he will remove any of the Products;
 - 3.3.3 save as may otherwise be provided in this Agreement, shall remove any Products specified in any Weekly Notification within fifteen Business Days of the issue of the Weekly Notification.;
 - 3.3.4 shall ensure that (so far as the design of individual vehicles permit in which case every effort shall be made to ensure they are driven correctly) the Purchaser, its employees, agents, contractors, sub-contractors and employees of any of them at all times will comply with all applicable road safety legislation and approved Codes of Practice, including but not limited to the Road Traffic Act which may be in force from time to time whilst accessing and egressing from the Stacking Sites and whilst using any Authorised Access Routes.
- 3.4 For the purposes of establishing the volume of the Products to be purchased and sold pursuant to this Contract:-
- 3.4.1 the first load removed by the Purchaser shall be measured as described in Clause 3.4.3 and weighed as described in Clause 3.4.4 and shall be deemed to be a sample load (hereinafter "Sample Load");

- 3.4.2 the ratio of the aggregate volume and weight of a Sample Load shall be applied to each load of the Product removed by the Purchaser until another load shall be measured and weighed as specified in clause 3.4.3 and 3.4.4 (and such load shall then become a Sample Load) and thereafter the ratio of the aggregate volume and weight of the later Sample Load shall be applied to each load until another Sample Load shall be ascertained and so on;
- 3.4.3 the volume of each sawlog constituting the Sample Load shall be calculated from the length at the shortest side (rounded down to the nearest 0.1 metre for random length logs or logs where the Purchaser has requested lengths cut in 0.1m steps, and to the nearest 0.3 metre for logs for which preset lengths have been agreed and for which 0.3m steps are prescribed as in Forestry and Land Scotland Field Book 9) and the top diameter under bark using the sawlog tables set out in Forestry and Land Scotland Booklet No 31 or other such tables as may amend or replace them from time to time in effect at the time of sale;
- 3.4.4 the weight of any load shall be the net weight of Products constituting the load over a weighbridge approved by Forestry and Land Scotland. The weighing of each load shall be at the Purchaser's expense and weight tickets must be returned to Forestry and Land Scotland together with a copy of the relevant Forestry and Land Scotland Conveyance Note not more than ten Business Days after removal of the load to which the weight ticket relates. Where in respect of any load other than a Sample Load the Purchaser fails to return the weight ticket within the specified period then Forestry and Land Scotland reserves the right to estimate the weight of the load and this estimate shall be regarded as the weight ticket weight in respect of that load;
- 3.4.5 the Sample Loads shall be every tenth load unless the parties agree a different frequency;
- 3.4.6 Alternative methods of establishing the volume of the Products to be purchased and sold pursuant to this contract may be employed subject to mutual agreement.
- 3.5 The Purchaser shall procure that:-
- 3.5.1 all vehicles use only the Authorised Access Routes and are, when loaded, within the weight limits defined by the road classification or as otherwise specified on the Sale Map. Forestry and Land Scotland gives no warranty that any other road is suitable for use by vehicles;
- 3.5.2 all vehicles are driven and used with all proper care and driven at such speed as shall be reasonable in all the circumstances including without limitation the nature of the route and vehicular load, and the prevailing weather and road conditions;
- 3.5.3 every reasonable precaution is taken to prevent any damage to the Authorised Access Routes including, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing or the following, ensuring they are not used after exceptionally heavy rains or during or after a thaw, until suitable for use without causing damage;

- 3.5.4 the use of any machine or method of working which in the opinion of Forestry and Land Scotland is causing, or is likely to cause, avoidable damage to standing trees, any road, path, track or drain, or to other property, is stopped on request from Forestry and Land Scotland;
- 3.5.5 the Authorised Access Routes and all roads in and around the Stacking Sites (including, for the avoidance of doubt all public rights of way and access, unless specifically agreed by Forestry and Land Scotland) at all times are kept free of obstructions arising from the purchasers operations which would prevent free flow of traffic except for a minimum of delay;
- 3.5.6 no unauthorised or unlawful discharges are made as a result of the purchasers operations to any drains, sewers, controlled waters or other waters either in contravention of Environmental Laws or which may cause damage to man, any other living organism or the environment.
- 3.6 In the event that all or part of the Authorised Access Routes require to be repaired or maintained, Forestry and Land Scotland shall be entitled, after consultation with the Purchaser save in an emergency, to close all or part of the Authorised Access Routes while the work is carried out.
- 3.7 Where through no fault of the Purchaser, its employees, agents, contractors, sub-contractors and employees of any of them, any of the Authorised Access Routes requires repair Forestry and Land Scotland shall where practicable within ten Business Days of that fact being made known to Forestry and Land Scotland endeavour to repair such damaged part or parts of that Authorised Access Route to the standard of the road classification as stated in the schedule.
- 3.8 Without prejudice to any other rights of Forestry and Land Scotland the Purchaser shall be liable for any wilful, reckless or negligent damage (including without limitation damage specified in Clause 14.2) due to any act or default of the Purchaser or the Purchaser's employees, agents, contractors, sub-contractors or the employees of any of them and shall make good the same to the satisfaction of Forestry and Land Scotland within ten Business Days where practicable of its occurrence.

4. SPECIFICATION OF PRODUCTS, STACKING SITES AND ACCESS

- 4.1 The Products, stacking Sites and Authorised Access Routes referred to in this Agreement are specified in Parts I, II, III and IV of the Schedule. The Purchaser shall remove the whole of the said Products.

5. RISK AND PROPERTY

- 5.1 The risk in the Products shall pass to the Purchaser immediately upon collection or fifteen Business Days following the issue of Weekly Notification in respect of those Products whichever is the sooner and the Purchaser shall be responsible to Forestry and Land Scotland for any loss or damage to or caused by the Products from such date as a result of any act or omission by the Purchaser or its employees, agents, contractors, sub-contractors or the employees of any of them.
- 5.2 Notwithstanding the passing of risk under Clause 5.1 above, unless and until the Purchaser shall have paid Forestry and Land Scotland all sums due pursuant to this Agreement property in and title to all the Products purchased and sold shall remain with Forestry and Land Scotland and the following provision of this Clause shall be applicable:-

- 5.2.1 the Purchaser grants to Forestry and Land Scotland an irrevocable licence to enter the Purchaser's premises or any other premises in the occupational control of the Purchaser where the Products are or are believed by the Purchaser or Forestry and Land Scotland to be located and to inspect and/or remove the Products at any time while they remain Forestry and Land Scotland's property. In the event that any of the Products are no longer in the occupational control of the Purchaser or its employees, agents, contractors, sub-contractors or the employees of any of them, the Purchaser shall use its best endeavours to facilitate the inspection and/or removal of the Products by Forestry and Land Scotland at any time while they remain Forestry and Land Scotland's property. All costs incurred by Forestry and Land Scotland in repossessing the Products whether or not they are still under the control of the Purchaser shall be borne by the Purchaser; and
- 5.2.2. the Purchaser shall immediately notify Forestry and Land Scotland if the Purchaser (or its directors) intend to present a petition for the making of an administration order or a winding-up petition or if the Purchaser (or its directors) is aware of any such intention on the part of any of the Purchaser's creditors or if any of the other circumstances specified in Clauses 6.3.1 to 6.3.5 inclusive are to the Purchaser's knowledge considered likely to arise.

6. DURATION AND TERMINATION

- 6.1 This Agreement shall come into force on the Commencement Date and time is of the essence.
- 6.1.1 In the event that access and/or egress to or from the Stacking Sites and or Authorised Access Routes has been curtailed as a consequence of circumstances pertaining to Clause 3.5.3 or Clause 3.6 except in cases where damage has resulted from the wilful, reckless or negligent actions or omissions of the Purchaser, or its employees, agents, contractors, sub-contractors or the employees of any of them, Forestry and Land Scotland will agree to such extension of the duration of the Agreement and applicable timescales provided for in the Agreement as is reasonable and a new Expiry Date;
- 6.1.2 If either party wishes to change the Expiry Date, that party shall request in writing a meeting with the other party a minimum of ten Business Days before the Expiry Date to discuss the change. Forestry and Land Scotland shall have an absolute discretion whether to refuse such request or grant the same on such terms as Forestry and Land Scotland shall think fit. Agreement to change will not be unreasonably withheld;
- 6.1.3 Any change to the Expiry Date shall be recorded in an addendum to this Agreement.
- 6.2 Forestry and Land Scotland shall be entitled forthwith to terminate this Agreement by written notice to the Purchaser if the Purchaser or any of its employees, agents, contractors, sub-contractors or the employees of any of them commits any breach of Clauses 2.4.1, 3.3.1, 8.2, 8.3, 12, 14.8, 14.13, 14.14, 14.18, 14.19 or save as provided in Clause 2.2, Clause 8.1 of this Agreement with immediate effect;

- 6.3 Either party shall be entitled forthwith to renegotiate (in the case of 6.3.4) or terminate this Agreement by written notice to the other if:-
- 6.3.1 the holder of any security takes possession or a receiver is appointed over any of the property or assets of that other party;
 - 6.3.2 that other party makes any voluntary arrangement with its creditors or becomes subject to any administration order;
 - 6.3.3 that other party goes into liquidation (except for the purposes of amalgamation or reconstruction and in such manner that the company resulting therefrom effectively agrees to be bound by or assume the obligations imposed on that other party under this Agreement); or
 - 6.3.4 that part of the forest covered by this Agreement from which the Products are to be produced is the subject of serious fire or serious windblow damage such that the Products cannot viably be produced so as to be available on the relevant Stacking Sites;
 - 6.3.5 that other party ceases to carry on business.
- 6.4 Forestry and Land Scotland shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement on giving 3 months written notice in the event of a breach of any term of this Agreement, not being a breach referred to in Clauses 6.2 or 6.3 above, save that in the case of a Remediable Breach (as that expression is defined in Clause 6.5) the Purchaser shall, following receipt of a written notice giving particulars of the Remediable Breach and requiring it to be remedied within a stated period, so remedy that Remediable Breach; if the Purchaser does not remedy the Remediable Breach within that period or within that period commits a second similar Remediable Breach, Forestry and Land Scotland shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement forthwith.
- 6.5 A breach shall be considered to be a Remediable Breach if:-
- 6.5.1 the party in breach can comply with the provision in question in all respects other than as to the time of performance (provided that in respect of that matter Forestry and Land Scotland has in its absolute discretion agreed time of performance shall no longer be of the essence); or
 - 6.5.2 the Purchaser fails to comply with Clauses 13.2, 14.2, 14.5, 14.6, 14.7, 14.9, 14.11, 14.12 or 14.15.
- 6.6 Upon termination of the Agreement whether by written notice or expiry of time, the Purchaser shall immediately cease the removal of Products but Forestry and Land Scotland may, at its discretion, allow the Purchaser a further period in which to remove any Products on payment for them.
- 6.7 On the later of termination or expiry of any further period granted any Products remaining on Forestry and Land Scotland Land shall, if title has passed to the Purchaser, vest in and become the property of Forestry and Land Scotland. Forestry and Land Scotland will be entitled either to retain or resell any Products both on an open market basis which have been paid for ("the Retained Products") and provided that any other claims against the Purchaser arising in relation to the subject matter of this Agreement have been settled, Forestry and Land Scotland shall reimburse to the Purchaser the lesser of the remainder of any sums received from the Purchaser for any Retained Products and/or received on reselling any Retained Products less all costs, expenses, fees and losses directly and naturally resulting in the ordinary course of events. In the event of such costs and losses exceeding the total sum received by Forestry and Land Scotland for the Retained Products the Purchaser shall on demand pay to Forestry and Land Scotland the amount by which said costs and losses exceed said total sum.

- 6.8 Within two months of the termination of the Agreement the Purchaser shall remove any buildings, erections or equipment the Purchaser may have placed on Forestry and Land Scotland Land and in respect of which there is no occupancy agreement with Forestry and Land Scotland. Should the Purchaser fail to remove such buildings, erections or equipment within the time specified, Forestry and Land Scotland may retain or remove and dispose of them as it thinks fit and the Purchaser shall on demand reimburse Forestry and Land Scotland for all costs incurred in their removal and disposal and making good any damage resulting therefrom.
- 6.9 The right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Clause 6 shall be without prejudice to any other right or remedy of either party in respect of the breach concerned (if any) or any other breach.
- 6.10 It is hereby agreed that the Purchaser will have access to the Work Site as a licensee only and it will not at any time take possession or occupation nor acquire any rights to security over said areas. This licence shall not be given to create a tenancy or any relationship of landlord or tenant and shall save where terminable earlier pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or as may otherwise be agreed in writing subsist only until the expiration of the period provided in clause 6.8.

7. PRICE

- 7.1 The Price to be paid for the Products shall be as specified in Part I of the Schedule.

8. PAYMENTS

- 8.1 Payment for the Total Quantity shall be made to Forestry and Land Scotland in immediately cleared funds, without deduction for or on account of any set off or counterclaim or (other than as required by law) any tax to such account as may be specified by Forestry and Land Scotland as provided in Clause 8.2 and 8.3.
- 8.2 If Clause 8.3 does not apply the Purchaser shall be required to pay Forestry and Land Scotland Instalments on the Instalment Dates as invoiced by Forestry and Land Scotland and the Purchaser shall not be permitted to remove Products until after the relevant Instalment has been paid.
- 8.3 If the Purchaser has a credit facility, Forestry and Land Scotland shall render invoices up to the credit limit determined by Forestry and Land Scotland from time to time at its sole discretion, being the maximum which may be owed by the Purchaser to Forestry and Land Scotland at any time under this and any other agreement between the Purchaser and Forestry and Land Scotland. Payment shall be made by the Purchaser in respect of each invoice not later than one calendar month following the month in which the Products were removed. If the whole or any part of the invoiced purchase money shall not be paid by the due date Forestry and Land Scotland shall have the right to terminate the agreement forthwith or, at Forestry and Land Scotland's discretion, the Purchaser shall pay interest on the sums due at the current UK Government base lending rate plus 1.5 per cent from the date upon which such a payment is due until actual payment. Payments received by Forestry and Land Scotland from the Purchaser shall be applied first by Forestry and Land Scotland against accrued interest and second against sums incurred under 14.3 and then against the principal debt.
- 8.4 If the credit limit referred to in Clause 8.3 is, or is likely to be exceeded for any reason (of which Forestry and Land Scotland shall be sole judge), then the provisions of Clause 8.5 shall apply.

- 8.5 When this sub-clause is applicable under any provision, Forestry and Land Scotland may, without prejudice to any other remedies available to it under this Agreement or otherwise, notify the Purchaser that no Products may be removed under this or any other agreement between Forestry and Land Scotland and the Purchaser until the Purchaser has made such payment as Forestry and Land Scotland shall, in its sole discretion determine.
- 8.6 In the event that Forestry and Land Scotland issues a notice to the Purchaser under Clause 8.5, the Purchaser will not thereby be relieved of any of the Purchaser's obligations under this Agreement including, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the obligation to remove the Quantity before the Removal Date.
- 8.7 Forestry and Land Scotland reserves the right to demand a deposit of 10% of the total contract value. Where Forestry and Land Scotland exercises the right to demand a deposit, the deposit shall be lodged by the Purchaser with Forestry and Land Scotland by the latest ten Business Days prior to the Commencement Date. The said deposit will be held by Forestry and Land Scotland until the completion of the Agreement to the satisfaction of Forestry and Land Scotland and the payment in full of all sums due by the Purchaser to Forestry and Land Scotland.

In the event that:

- 8.7.1 the Purchaser fails to pay in full any sums due by the Purchaser to Forestry and Land Scotland; and/or
- 8.7.2 Forestry and Land Scotland incurs costs or suffers losses as a result of the Purchaser not performing the Purchaser's obligations under this Agreement to Forestry and Land Scotland's satisfaction;

notwithstanding and without prejudice to all other rights and remedies available to Forestry and Land Scotland under this Agreement or otherwise Forestry and Land Scotland shall be entitled to appropriate the said deposit or so much thereof as may be required in or towards meeting its costs or losses as specified in 8.7.2 above and/or the sum due to it specified in 8.7.1 above. The said deposit or any balance of it remaining after the application of this Clause or otherwise under this Agreement and the payment of any outstanding interest charges payable in respect of any money owing to Forestry and Land Scotland shall be returned by Forestry and Land Scotland to the Purchaser without interest as soon as possible after the Purchaser shall have performed the Purchaser's obligations.

9. ASSIGNMENTS

- 9.1 In the event of a reorganisation of Forestry and Land Scotland or any of its commercial trading activities that results in Forestry and Land Scotland's business and activities being implemented, performed, carried out, effected or undertaken by a new body ("the Reorganised Forestry and Land Scotland") Forestry and Land Scotland shall, on giving written notice to the Purchaser, be entitled to assign all of its rights and/or transfer all of its obligations under this Agreement to the Reorganised Forestry and Land Scotland which shall be entitled to enforce those rights as if this Agreement were made between the Purchaser and the Reorganised Forestry and Land Scotland.
- 9.2 The Purchaser shall not assign the Purchaser's rights or liabilities under this Agreement without the consent in writing of Forestry and Land Scotland, which consent shall not unreasonably be withheld for the purposes of this Clause but without limitation it would be reasonable for Forestry and Land Scotland to withhold its consent where the Assignee appears to Forestry and Land Scotland in its reasonable opinion to be a person or organisation to be unlikely to be able to fulfil the Purchaser's obligations under the Agreement if consigned.

10. FORCE MAJEURE

- 10.1 If either party is unable to perform all or any of their obligations under this Agreement by reason of Force Majeure then the party affected shall within 5 Business Days of the event or circumstance giving rise to Force Majeure give written notice to the other of its inability to perform the Agreement and the reasons for the same.
- 10.2 On the giving of such notice by either party then the liability of the party serving notice to make available or take the Products as appropriate in accordance with this Agreement shall be suspended and that party shall not be liable to meet the obligation to make available or accept the Total Quantity but shall continue to make available or accept such Products in such amount as can be made available or accepted in the circumstances. As soon as circumstances permit the full provisions of the Agreement shall be resumed and the time provided for between the Commencement and Expiry Dates as set out in Part I of the Schedule shall be extended for a period equivalent in working hours and conditions to the period of delay or suspension thereby caused.

11. ARBITRATION

- 11.1 Clauses 11.2 to 11.4 inclusive shall apply in relation to any dispute or difference arising between the parties which involves the interpretation or construction of this Agreement or the Price or the rights or liabilities of the parties. Any dispute or difference arising between the parties and which involves such matter as the Quantity as defined in Part I of the Schedule, the suitability of Authorised Access Routes, Specification in accordance with Clause 4.4 and Force Majeure shall be referred to the Inspector. In deciding any question referred to him hereunder the Inspector shall act on his own skilled judgement after making any inspection or enquiries which he may think necessary. The Inspector's decision on any such question shall be final and binding on both parties. The costs and charges of the Inspector shall be paid by the parties in equal shares. Both parties shall provide the Inspector with any documentation or assistance he may require to discharge his functions under this Clause.
- 11.2 Save as provided in Clause 11.1 if there is any question, difference or dispute which may arise concerning the construction, meaning or effect of this Agreement or concerning the rights and liabilities of the parties, then they shall use all reasonable efforts to settle it by way of negotiations.
- 11.3 If the parties fail to settle the matter within a reasonable period, then either party may refer it to a single arbiter or arbitrator who shall be agreed between the parties. If the parties fail to agree on the appointment of an arbiter or arbitrator in accordance with this clause, then within 1 month of the request by one party to the other that the matter be referred to arbitration either party may apply to President for the time being of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators to make an appointment.
- 11.4 The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the parties and the costs of the arbitration shall be within the arbitrator's award.

12 INSURANCE

- 12.1 Throughout the term of the Agreement (and during any further period granted by Forestry and Land Scotland for the removal of Products after the Expiry Date), the Purchaser shall at its own expense maintain in force, with an insurance company approved by Forestry and Land Scotland, insurance against all loss, damage and insurable risks of third party liability up to a minimum of £5,000,000 (five million pounds) per claim arising out of the works, operations, processes and other acts and omissions pursuant to this Agreement of the Purchaser and of any agent, contractor, or sub-contractor engaged by it in connection with the exercise of the Purchaser's rights or the performance of its obligations under this Agreement (and of its and their respective employees). The Purchaser's obligations under this sub-clause in relation to any agent, contractor, or sub-contractor (and their respective employees) shall be deemed to be satisfied to the extent that the Purchaser procures that such agent, contractor, or sub-contractor has effected insurance (with an insurance company and in an amount acceptable to Forestry and Land Scotland) which provides the same level of protection to Forestry and Land Scotland as if such insurance had been effected by the Purchaser. Furthermore, Forestry and Land Scotland may, in its discretion, agree that the Purchaser's obligations under this sub-clause in relation to itself and its employees shall be deemed to be satisfied in the event that it is demonstrated to the satisfaction of Forestry and Land Scotland that an agent, contractor, or sub-contractor has effected insurance (with an insurance company and in an amount acceptable to Forestry and Land Scotland) which provides the same level of protection to Forestry and Land Scotland as if such insurance had been effected by the Purchaser. Whenever required by Forestry and Land Scotland, the purchaser shall produce to Forestry and Land Scotland the policy or policies relating to all such insurances and the receipts for the then current year's premiums in respect of them. The maintenance of insurance in accordance with the provisions of this sub-clause shall not serve to limit or exclude any liability of the purchaser to Forestry and Land Scotland in delict or negligence or in respect of any breach of this Agreement.
- 12.2 The Purchaser shall not do or permit or suffer to be done on the Stacking Sites or the Authorised Access Routes or otherwise anything that may render the policy or policies of insurance effected in accordance with Clause 12.1 void or voidable.

13. INDEMNITY

- 13.1 The Purchaser hereby undertakes to indemnify and hold harmless Forestry and Land Scotland from and against any and all losses, costs, damages, liabilities and expenses suffered or incurred by Forestry and Land Scotland directly or indirectly as a result of any act or omission of the Purchaser or of any of its employees, agents, contractors or sub-contractors or the employees of any of them in connection with the carrying out of this Agreement, and against any and all actions, suits, proceedings, claims, demands, assessments and judgements with respect to any of the foregoing.
- 13.2 The Purchaser is responsible for assessing any and all risks associated with and/or arising on the Authorised Access Routes and Stacking Sites. Forestry and Land Scotland shall provide a non-exclusive list of hazards on the Authorised Access Routes and Stacking Sites from which risks may arise and these shall be given in Part IV of the Schedule. The Purchaser shall hold minimum third party liability indemnity cover of £5,000,000 (five million pounds) unless a larger sum is specified in Part I of the Schedule.

14. CONDITIONS

- 14.1 This Agreement and the sale and purchase contemplated hereunder are subject to the following conditions, and the Purchaser shall comply and shall ensure that the Purchaser's employees, agents, contractors, sub-contractors or the employees of any of them, will comply with and observe the following conditions and shall produce to Forestry and Land Scotland if requested such evidence as Forestry and Land Scotland may require to show that the Purchaser has satisfied this provision.
- 14.2 The Purchaser shall adopt a reasonable method of working such that :-
- 14.2.1 the Products are removed in an orderly and workmanlike manner;
 - 14.2.2 the Products and any debris resulting from removal thereof are kept clear of all existing buildings, archaeological sites, walls, gates, fences, hedges, drains, watercourses, roads, rides and tracks;
 - 14.2.3 all necessary precautions are taken to prevent wilful, reckless or negligent damage to any and all standing trees remaining on the Work Site or in any neighbouring woods or plantations; and
 - 14.2.4 all necessary precautions are taken to prevent wilful, reckless or negligent damage without limitation to any and all buildings, archaeological sites, walls, gates, fences, hedges, drains, watercourses including groundwater, roads, rides, tracks, vegetation, man, living organisms or the environment; and
 - 14.2.5 the Purchaser shall be liable to Forestry and Land Scotland for any damage to Forestry and Land Scotland's property thereto due to any act or default of the Purchaser, and shall make good any such damage as soon as reasonably practicable;
- 14.3 If the Purchaser shall fail to comply with any of the provisions in Clause 14.2 above then, within ten Business Days of receiving written notice from Forestry and Land Scotland, or after such shorter time as may be reasonable and if the proposed work is urgently required then, Forestry and Land Scotland may make good such damage and do all such necessary work. In this event the cost incurred by Forestry and Land Scotland shall be reimbursed immediately by the Purchaser upon written demand by Forestry and Land Scotland.
- 14.4 The Purchaser shall ensure that the Purchaser, its agents, contractors, sub-contractors and respective employees are at all times the persons responsible for complying with all aspects of The Reporting of Injuries, Diseases and Dangerous Occurrences Regulations, 1995 (RIDDOR).

- 14.5 The Purchaser shall at all times comply with all Employment Law and additionally the following:
- 14.5.1 Chainsaw operators working on Forestry and Land Scotland Land must be in possession of either, a current Certificate(s) of Competence issued by an approved awarding body or the current equivalent units or qualifications within a recognised National or Scottish Vocational Qualification. During consolidation training prior to full assessment against a national standard a valid "Record of Training and Achievement" or qualifications issued by FASTCo or the equivalent from any body which from time to time replaces it is an acceptable interim confirmation of competence;
- 14.5.2 Any overhead electric lines in the area covered by this Agreement, will be indicated on the Sale Map. The agent responsible for any overhead electric line indicated on the Sale Map shall be listed in Part III of the Schedule. Forestry and Land Scotland will ensure that the Products are stacked outwith 2 tree lengths of any overhead powerline at all times. Operators on sites that include overhead electric lines must be in possession of the relevant, applicable FASTCo Safety Guide or the equivalent from any body that from time to time replaces it.
- 14.6 The Purchaser shall undertake best available practices not entailing excessive cost in respect of any activities which may endanger the general public at all times whilst on Forestry and Land Scotland Land and in and around the Authorised Access Routes and Stacking Sites. Forestry and Land Scotland shall in accordance with Clause 13.2, estimate the potential frequency of incursions to the Authorised Access Routes and Stacking Sites by the general public and this shall be indicated in Part III of the Schedule.
- 14.7 During the Pine Shoot Beetle breeding season, from May to September inclusive in any year Forestry and Land Scotland shall have the right to peel any logs of pine which have not been removed by the Purchaser in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and to recover the costs thereof from the Purchaser.
- 14.8 The Purchaser shall not light fires on any Forestry and Land Scotland land without the express permission of Forestry and Land Scotland in relation to each individual fire and shall take all reasonable and proper precautions under the direction of Forestry and Land Scotland to prevent the risk of fire on the Work Site or their operations causing fires on or spreading to any adjoining or surrounding ground.
- 14.9 Forestry and Land Scotland reserves the right to prohibit the use of chain saws or any other machines on Forestry and Land Scotland Land in an emergency or at times when their use would, in Forestry and Land Scotland's opinion, cause a nuisance to the general public or to local residents. When required, save in an emergency, such prohibition shall be stated in Part III of the Schedule and shall not be regarded as justifying any changes in the terms, conditions or prices in this Agreement.
- 14.10 If for some reason not foreseen at the time the Agreement was made Forestry and Land Scotland is required to stop all felling for part or all of the time between the Commencement Date and the Expiry Date, Forestry and Land Scotland shall, save in an emergency write to the Purchaser requesting a meeting to discuss an amendment to the terms of this Agreement. Any new terms reasonably agreed as a result of that or any subsequent meeting shall be incorporated in Addenda to this Agreement. Where this clause applies, Forestry and Land Scotland shall be deemed not to be in breach of the Agreement.

- 14.11 No animal, except those employed to remove Products, shall be taken or allowed on Forestry and Land Scotland Land by the Purchaser without the written consent of Forestry and Land Scotland. Any animals employed to remove Products or brought on to Forestry and Land Scotland Land with Forestry and Land Scotland's consent shall at all times remain the responsibility of the Purchaser and shall be kept under control at all times so as to prevent any injury to any person, property, any living organism or the environment.
- 14.12 No caravans, mobile homes, campervans or equivalent vehicle or tent shall be brought on Forestry and Land Scotland Land without the written consent of Forestry and Land Scotland.
- 14.13 The Purchaser shall at all times comply with all Environmental Law and any other regulation affecting the conduct of the Purchaser's business and ensure that no harm to any person, property, any living organisms or the environment may result from its acts or omissions in relation to this Agreement or from the acts or omissions of the Purchaser, its employees, agents, contractors, sub-contractors and the employees of any of them in relation to this Agreement.
- 14.14 The Purchaser shall not offer any reward, inducement, emolument or incentive whatsoever, to any person in the employment or performing a contract for services on behalf of Forestry and Land Scotland.
- 14.15 The Parties shall provide all necessary safety signs (Part IV of the Schedule details the location of the warning Signs) and ensure that at all times in relation to any Work Site all necessary safety signs are clearly visible and other necessary measures are taken to warn the public of dangerous works being carried out in the vicinity and to prevent the public from being exposed to any danger emanating from any Work Site with particular regard being had to likely presence of children.
- 14.16 Forestry and Land Scotland shall be entitled upon giving 24 hours notice, save in emergencies where its entitlement will have immediate effect, to veto the use by the Purchaser of any contractor or sub-contractor which Forestry and Land Scotland does not consider suitable to carry out the obligations in this Agreement and the Purchaser shall ensure that such contractor or sub-contractor shall immediately cease any activities and vacate the Work Site.
- 14.17 Forestry and Land Scotland shall be entitled at all times to enter the Work Site and to ensure compliance by the Purchaser, its employees, agents, contractors, sub-contractors and the employees of any of them with the provisions of this Agreement or for any other reason.
- 14.18 The Purchaser shall have regard at all times to Forestry and Land Scotland's powers and duties under the Forestry and Land Management (Scotland) Act 2018 (FLM (S) A 2018) as amended from time to time and other applicable legislation including without limitation the National Parks and Access to the Countryside Act 1959 and the Countryside Act 1968 and any relevant Local Acts and in particular without limitation Forestry and Land Scotland's duty in respect of the conservation and enhancement of natural beauty, the conservation of flora and fauna and geological or physiological features of special interest, the protection against pollution of any water (including groundwater) and Forestry and Land Scotland's power to provide or assist in the provision of tourist, recreational or sporting facilities.

- 14.19 The Purchaser undertakes to comply and to procure the compliance of its employees, agents, contractors, sub-contractors and the employees of any of them at all times with Forestry and Land Scotland byelaws as set out in Forestry and Land Scotland Byelaws 1982 or such other byelaws as may from time to time be in force copies of which shall be made available by Forestry and Land Scotland at the request of the Purchaser.

15. RELATIONSHIP OF THE PARTIES

Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute the Purchaser a partner, agent or representative of Forestry and Land Scotland and accordingly the Purchaser, as an independent contractor, hereby agrees and undertakes not without the prior written consent of Forestry and Land Scotland at any time or from time to time:

- 15.1 to incur or purport to incur by itself, its employees, agents, contractors, sub-contractors and the employees of any of them any liability or obligation whatsoever in name or on behalf of Forestry and Land Scotland or in any manner of way to hold itself or themselves or himself or herself out as agent for Forestry and Land Scotland or otherwise to represent itself or themselves or himself or herself as having ostensible authority to act on Forestry and Land Scotland's behalf;
- 15.2 in name of or on behalf of Forestry and Land Scotland to make any representation or give any warranty, whether express or implied, about Forestry and Land Scotland or the Products in any manner of way not previously authorised in writing by Forestry and Land Scotland; and
- 15.3 to pledge or purport to pledge Forestry and Land Scotland's credit; and
- 15.4 to take or purport to make Forestry and Land Scotland bound as guarantor or surety in any manner of way whatsoever.

16. CONFIDENTIALITY

Each party agrees to maintain secret and confidential all information obtained from the other both pursuant to this Agreement and prior to and in contemplation of it, to respect the other's rights in terms of the Agreement, to use the same exclusively for the purposes of this Agreement, and to disclose the same only to those of its employees and contractors pursuant to this Agreement (if any) to whom and to the extent that such disclosure is reasonably necessary for the purpose of this Agreement.

17. SPIRIT, AIMS AND INTENT

The parties hereto hereby undertake to execute all documents and do all acts and things necessary or expedient for the purpose of giving full force and effect to the provisions of this Agreement and the parties further agree to co-operate in and implement the spirit, aims and intent of the arrangements contemplated hereunder.

18. WAIVER

Any waiver by either party of a breach of any provision of this Agreement shall not be considered as a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or any other provision hereof.

19. NOTICES

Any notice or document required or permitted to be given or served under this Agreement may be given or served personally or by leaving the same or by sending the same by first class recorded delivery post as follows:-

- 19.1 in the case of the Forestry and Land Scotland, < Forestry and Land Scotland Head Office, 1 Highlander Way, Inverness > marked for attention of the Chief Executive, or at or to the address specified in the preamble to this Agreement;
- 19.2 in the case of the Purchaser at or to their address specified in Part I of the Schedule; or to such other address as shall have been last notified to the other party for that purpose. Any notice or document given or served by post will be deemed to have been duly given or served on the second Business Day after the letter containing same was posted; in proving that any notice or document was so given or served it will be necessary only to prove that the same was properly addressed and posted. Any notice or document given or served will be deemed to have been duly given or served at the time of despatch or, if that is not during normal business hours on a Business Day, at 0900 hours on the first Business Day following the date of despatch, and in proving that any notice or document was so given or served it will be necessary only to prove that the same was properly addressed and despatched.

20. COSTS AND EXPENSES

- 20.1 Save as otherwise stated in this Agreement, each party shall pay its own costs and expenses in relation to the negotiation, preparation, execution and carrying into effect of this Agreement.
- 20.2 The Purchaser will indemnify Forestry and Land Scotland on demand in respect of all costs and expenses incurred and any value added tax thereon by Forestry and Land Scotland in connection with the granting of any waiver or consent sought by the Purchaser or in connection with any variation, amendment, extension or modification of the Agreement requested by the Purchaser and in the enforcing, perfecting, protecting or preserving or seeking to enforce, perfect, protect or preserve any of Forestry and Land Scotland's rights, or in suing for the recovery of any sum due from the Purchaser under this Agreement.

21. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION

This Agreement shall be construed according to and governed by the law of Scotland and each of the parties hereby irrevocably submits to the jurisdiction of the Scottish courts.
