

The Bin

Part of the Forests of Aberdeenshire

Facilities

Parking

Picnic area

Viewpoint

There is a charge to park at some of our sites please refer to our website for details. The nearest public toilets are in Huntly.

Location

Nearest postcode: AB54 4TS

How to get here

The Bin is on the east side of the A96 about 2 miles north of Huntly. The car park is well signposted, a ¼ mile north of the turn-off to Drumdelgie.

Trail Information

Ferry Knowe Trail ●●●

A short stroll around Ferry Knowe and Boddum Hill with some great views through the majestic larch trees.

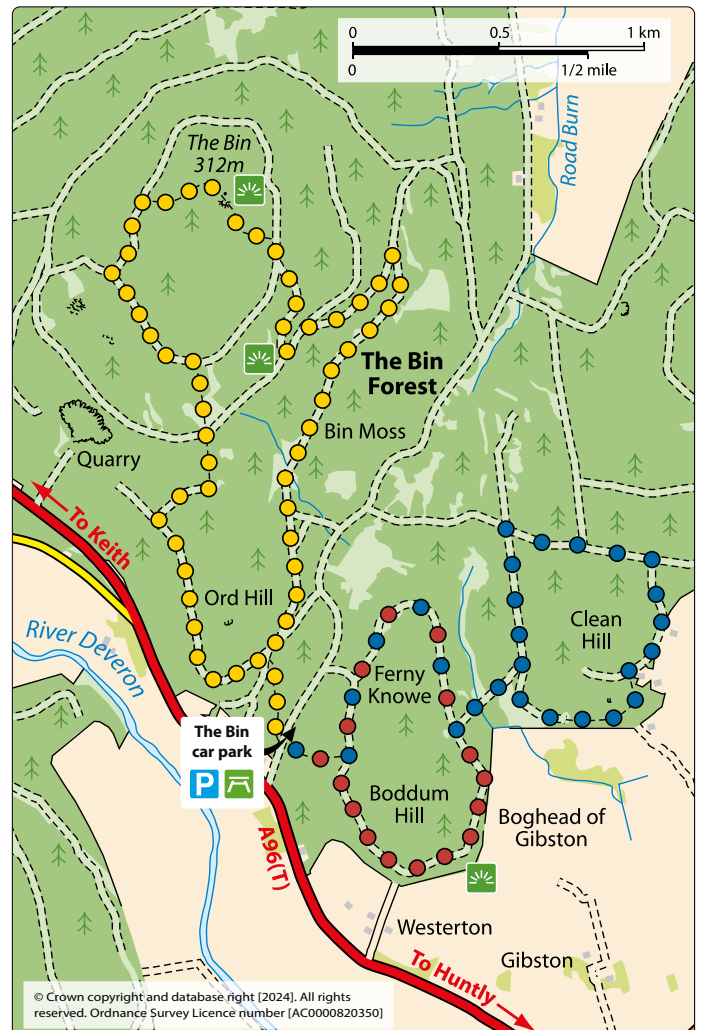

Mostly wide, uneven gravel and grassy surface. Some exposed tree roots and slightly soft sections. Includes one fairly steep slope.

moderate

1¾ miles / 2.8 km
Allow 1 hour

The blue and yellow trails can be found on page 2

Queen Tree Trail ●●●

Generations of trees can be seen on this trail, from grand firs planted in the 1840s to seedlings pushing through the soil.

Firm but uneven gravel and grassy surface. Some steep slopes. Includes exposed tree roots and slightly muddy sections.

moderate

3 ½ miles
/ 5.5 km
Allow
2 hours

Gallon of Water Trail ●●●

Climb through the forest to the top of The Bin for great views and a pool that was believed to have healing powers.

Sections of rough, narrow earth path. Long steep slope with one short flight of wooden steps. Includes some rocky, rooty and potentially muddy parts.

strenuous

4 miles
/ 6.5 km
Allow 2½ hours