

Glenfinnan | Gleann Fhionnainn

Part of the Forests of Fort William

Facilities

Parking

View point

Visitor centre

There is a charge to park at some of our sites please refer to our website for details.

There are toilets and a café at the National Trust for Scotland Visitor Centre.

Please note: The car park at the Glenfinnan Visitor Centre can be very busy.

Location

Nearest postcode: PH37 4LT

How to get here

From Fort William take the A830 west for 15½ miles (25 km). Look out for the National Trust for Scotland Visitor Centre at Glenfinnan on your right.

Trail Information

Dragonfly Trail ●●●

A gentle wander over the Callop river and along wetlands, where dragonflies and damselflies buzz round the sides of the path.

Gentle slopes with smooth tarmac and gravel sections. Boardwalk and a bridge with moderately steep ramps.

easy

¼ mile / 1.1km
Allow ½ hour

Pinewood Trail ●●●

Cross the Callop river and climb the pine-clad knoll of Torran Dubhais. There are great views of Loch Shiel, the monument and the viaduct.

Narrow and steep firm gravel path with tight corners. Includes low stone steps, uneven surface and low branches.

strenuous

½ mile / 1.3km
Allow ½ hour

