

These caterpillars are filling up on leaves before they turn into chrysalises. Can you count how many there are on each leaf?

Caterpillar Calculations

Did you know...

...a caterpillar breathes through small holes on its sides which are called spiracles

