

Scotland's National Forest Estate is responsibly managed to the UK Woodland Assurance Standard.

Achray Land Management Plan M8 Current species distribution

Scale @ A3: 1:35,000

Date: 08/12/2022

Author: Stephen Murphy

- |                                     |                |                           |
|-------------------------------------|----------------|---------------------------|
| Birch                               | Mixed conifer  | Phase 1 (23 - 27)         |
| Oak                                 | Scots pine     | Phase 2 (28 - 32)         |
| Other native broadleaves            | Lodgepole pine | Forest roads              |
| Mixed native/non-native broadleaves | Sitka spruce   | Land management plan area |
| Larches                             | Norway spruce  |                           |
| Douglas fir                         | Open           |                           |