

Three Lochs Forest Drive

Queen Elizabeth Forest Park

Facilities

Parking

Toilets

Forest drive (charged)

Cycling

Picnic area

Viewpoint

Horse riding

Location

Nearest postcode: FK8 3SY

How to get here

The entrance to the Three Lochs Forest Drive is on the east side of The Duke's Pass/A821, about 2 miles north of Aberfoyle.

The charge to drive the Three Lochs route is £2. This can be paid by coin or card

Trail Information

Achray Trail ●●●

Amble down through the birch and pine along the Allt a' Cham-ruidhe stream to reach the viewpoints overlooking Loch Achray and across to the summit of Ben A'an.

Uneven rock and earth path. Several steep slopes and occasional muddy sections. Two bridges. Look out for vehicles along the forest drive.

moderate

¾ mile / 1.2 km
Allow ½ hour

Pine Ridge Trail ●●●

A trail that winds up through the young pines for majestic views across Loch Drunkie and the surrounding hills.

Uneven rock and earth paths with some muddy patches. Long steep slopes with loose stones. Beware vehicles along the forest drive.

strenuous

1 mile / 1.5 km
Allow ¾ hour

Loch Drunkie Trail ●●●

A charming walk along the oak-lined shore of Loch Drunkie, returning through the quiet woodland above where red squirrels can often be found.

Firm gravel surface with loose or uneven sections. Long moderate slopes with some short steeper sections. Parts may be wet after rain.

moderate

1¼ miles / 1.9 km
Allow ¾ hour

The map for these trails can be found on page 2

Map of Three Lochs Forest Drive

